

BEEN A LONG TIME

05 Dec 2007 06:05:03 pm

Yes I know... it's been a really long time since I had some musing to offer. So much has happened and I kept thinking, I'll write something later. Well a lot of later's have gone by & nothing was written.

A few events that have happened since May... met John Galliano (Christian Dior), had the wholesale stationery show, 3 wholesale gift shows, a vintage textile retail show , a fishing retail show , opened a small space in ABC Carpet in Manhattan , had a 5 minute segment on The Martha Stewart Show (along w/being mentioned numerous times throughout the year), Martha came by for a visit at the stores , had 3 artist trunk shows , our metal threads were used in an exhibit in the Met , product mentions in 3 different issues of Home Companion magazine , mentions in numerous other magazines, 2 artist craft jams..... I'm exhausted just writing all of this!!!! As you can see I have been a very, very busy girl and the list isn't finished!

Check back for more links to these events!!
